

table of contents

INTRODUCTION

Page 9

INSPIRATIONAL GALLERY

Page 10

CHAPTER ONE

what you'll need to begin

Page 17

Types of Pastels
A Starting Assortment
Setting Up Your Work Space
Keep It Clean
Different Types of Paper Surfaces
Different Surfaces, Same Pastels
DEMONSTRATION: Control Texture with a Homemade Surface
Another Type of Homemade Surface
Working on a Colored Surface

CHAPTER TWO

composition and color

Page 33

Choosing a Subject
Keeping the Composition Moving
The Importance of Value
Maintaining a Strong Value Structure
Strengthen Your Painting Values
Using Color
Designing with Color

CHAPTER THREE

putting pastel to paper

Page 45

Making Strokes
The Optical Mixing of Color
Blending Colors
Tools for Blending
DEMONSTRATION: Blending Reflections in Water
DEMONSTRATION: Beginning with an Underpainting
Underpainting of Complementary Colors
Using a Brilliant Underpainting
DEMONSTRATION: Underpainting Sunlight and Shadow
DEMONSTRATION: Mounting Paper to a Board
DEMONSTRATION: Mixing Pastels with Watercolor
DEMONSTRATION: Underpainting with Gouache
DEMONSTRATION: Using Water in Your Underpainting
Using Acetone for Quick Drying
Underpainting with an Oil Stain

CHAPTER FOUR

painting from photographs

Page 73

Photographic Inconsistencies
Don't Paint All the Details
Cropping Your Photos to Create Drama
Make the Painting Better Than the Photo
DEMONSTRATION: Working From Two Photos
Painting from Slides
DEMONSTRATION: Painting Live Subjects
DEMONSTRATION: Painting Children from Photographs

painting from life

Page 97

DEMONSTRATION: Painting a Figure from Life

DEMONSTRATION: Painting a Model in Your Studio

DEMONSTRATION: Painting a Still Life

Painting Outdoors

DEMONSTRATION: Painting the Landscape

DEMONSTRATION: Returning to the Scene

Landscape as Still Life

DEMONSTRATION: Using Color Studies as a Reference

WHEN IS YOUR PAINTING FINISHED?

Page 122

CONTRIBUTORS

Page 124

INDEX

Page 126